

TWO LIGHTLESS NIGHTS ORDERED

No Electric Signs to Flash on Sunday and Thursday Nights Hereafter.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 15.—By order of the fuel administration, there will be two lightless nights each week, beginning Sunday night, each Sunday and Thursday night thereafter will see only necessary street lights, lights inside stores as required by law and the fewest possible household lights.

The new order replaces one which became effective November 9 for the dimming of electric displays, which will be two lightless nights each week, beginning Sunday night, each Sunday and Thursday night thereafter will see only necessary street lights, lights inside stores as required by law and the fewest possible household lights.

The General Order. The order follows: No corporation, association, partnership or person engaged wholly or in part in the business of furnishing electricity for illumination or power purposes, whether such person, association, partnership or person, maintaining a plant for the purpose of supplying electricity for illumination or power purposes, or for the purpose of displaying advertisements, notices, announcements or signs, shall, on Sunday or Thursday night, display or cause to be displayed any electric sign, light or other device, except such as are necessary for the public safety or as are required by law, nor for excessive street lighting intended for display or advertising purposes, except such as are maintained by the municipality or by others.

Thursday and Sunday Nights. "These prohibitions and all of them are effective Thursday and Sunday nights only, of each and every week. The only exceptions apply to lights used for governmental purposes by the United States government or the government of any state or territory, or by any city or town.

The state fuel administrators are directed and authorized to see that the provisions of the order are scrupulously observed.

Run Free Lights in Homes. In compliance with the patriotic spirit of the order the housewife is directed and authorized to see that as few lights as possible are burning in her home.

EL PASO REMINGTON MEN GET CHRISTMAS PROMOTIONS

C. A. Darnell, manager for El Paso for the Remington Typewriter company, has been promoted to the position of branch manager at Oklahoma City, with jurisdiction over the entire state of Oklahoma. His promotion comes, it is understood, in appreciation of the excellent work he has done as manager of the El Paso branch.

P. A. Farrel, who has been a salesman in the El Paso office since 1911, has been appointed manager of the El Paso office. Mr. Farrel formerly had the New Mexico territory for the El Paso office, but when the El Paso office was made independent and New Mexico was created a new agency, he came to the El Paso office.

Mr. Darnell has been manager of the El Paso office since 1919.

ORDERS EL PASO LIGHTS CUT OUT

B. F. Darbyshire Appointed Fuel Administrator; Committee Named.

Electric advertising signs in El Paso are to be shut off Sunday night, and hereafter they will be dark on Sunday and Thursday nights. This is the latest ruling of fuel administrator Garfield, and it applies over the country generally. Wiley Blair, fuel administrator for Texas, on Saturday notified B. F. Darbyshire, who has been appointed fuel administrator for El Paso county, that the new order for the shutting off of electric signs would be effective Sunday. Administrator Blair also announced the appointment of B. F. Darbyshire as fuel administrator for El Paso county, and named a committee to advise him.

The ruling of national administrator Garfield on electric advertising signs is that all electric signs, including those for stores, hotels and restaurants, and signs on buildings and elsewhere are to be cut off completely on Sunday and Thursday nights. Municipal lights and street lights will be required for these nights and only such light as is necessary for safety can be used.

EL PASOANS HELP CELEBRATE WITH FARMERS AT MESILLA

For the purpose of attending the farmers' prosperity day and barbecue at the State college, Mesilla Park, N. M., Saturday a delegation of El Paso business men left for that place. Saturday morning, Julius Krausner, of El Paso, will speak on business relations between valley farmers and El Paso business men.

The purpose of the meeting is to celebrate the formation of the irrigation districts and the ratification of the drainage contract. The construction of the proposed concrete highway from Anthony to Las Cruces will be discussed.

President John M. Wyatt, of the chamber of commerce, intended to attend the meeting, but did not return in time from Dallas. Among those who made the trip were Messrs. J. J. Mearns and W. H. Wiles.

JUDGES SAY TURNING OVER LIQUOR TO U. S. IS LEGAL

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 15.—Governor Campbell today issued a ruling of the 13 superior court judges in Arizona, advising cooperation to save from destruction the liquor confiscated from bootleggers in order that the alcohol contained therein may be made of use to the Red Cross or government. Judge Frank Baxter, of Yuma, said the ruling was issued by the judges in response to a request of the U. S. attorney, J. C. Starnes, of Maricopa county, all have replied that they consider the suggestion not only patriotic, but legal, and that they will direct that all liquor seized by the sheriff be held at the disposal of the United States government. Refusal to do so is considered equivalent to the "destruction" demanded by the Arizona statutes.

SPRECKLES SAYS SUGAR TOO HIGH

Declares He Protested Fixing Cuban Raw Sugar Price at $4.60.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 15.—The investigation was resumed today by the senate committee refusing to permit counsel for the food administration to cross examine witnesses. Chairman Reed said the committee would inquire into any phases suggested by the food administration or other officials.

Benefited His Rival.

President Claus Spreckles of the Federal Sugar Refining company, regarding his testimony today, said he was not original with Mr. Carlock. The Herald published a picture of two young men knitting in the lobby of an eastern hotel. Mr. Carlock said that it was "framed," that young men don't knit, but Mr. Carlock thinks different.

Wants Willing Workers. "I am sure that there are several young men in El Paso who can knit, and if they are willing to help out on the sugar campaign, I will be glad to have them. I should like to have the committee in the White House."

The exhibition will be staged at a corner store, a radio will be going on as part of a series of window exhibitions. Among the Red Cross workers will be the raising of Cuban sugar. The Cuban planters protested it was too low.

Spreckles testified that the price of sugar should pay the refiners were raised by three American members of the international committee. The food administration having supervision of the American supply and asked that three men were sugar refiners.

FOOD ADMINISTRATORS VISIT AMERICAN TROOPS

With the American Army in France, Dec. 15.—Six representatives of the United States food administration arrived today at the American army camp for a four day visit with the troops. They were entertained at luncheon by Gen. Pershing, inspected headquarters and then left for a hotel town.

The army will eat, sleep and talk with the soldiers and acquire first hand knowledge of the conditions in the United States army camp. They will be in the United States army camp for a four day visit with the troops.

NIFTY KNITTERS HERE'S CHANCE

Red Cross Chairman Carlock Wants Young Men for Window on Monday.

El Paso young men who are ditty knitters are asked by M. P. Carlock, publicity manager, to volunteer their services to stage a novel stunt for the benefit of the local Red Cross campaign for 1919 members in El Paso, which starts Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

A window display of young men knitting for the Red Cross will be put on next week in case Mr. Carlock can get the necessary knitters. The idea isn't original with Mr. Carlock. The Herald published a picture of two young men knitting in the lobby of an eastern hotel. Mr. Carlock said that it was "framed," that young men don't knit, but Mr. Carlock thinks different.

GIVES EMPLOYEES SAVING STAMPS

Cement Company Starts Movement as Example to Other Large Concerns.

The decision of the Southwestern Portland Cement company to make a Christmas present of a war saving stamp and card to each employee, is an example that will be followed by other large El Paso corporations, leaders in the campaign for selling stamps believe.

The cement company has appointed X. O. Koffman to have charge of the distribution of stamps, and he will keep a supply at his office for future sales. The departure on the part of the company is not only to encourage the success of the stamp campaign, but also to aid in the formation of thrift habits among its employees.

Gives Holder Incentive. It was pointed out by P. C. Cole, chairman of the El Paso county campaign, that the effect of giving stamps as presents for Christmas would be cumulative. If 40 war saving stamps are given as a present now, the holder will have 40 stamps on the certificate before the year is over, making the certificate worth $100 in five years. On it, the recipient of the gift may be able to fill two or more certificates.

Sales are increasing. Sales of stamps for Christmas are increasing. The postoffice report was more than 100 for Friday, 1919, for purchasing stamps will be added.

The stamp adopted for the campaign is a war saving stamp, and will be used in many ways during the campaign.

First Coupon Day on First Liberty Bonds Sees Few Collections

Saturday was the first coupon day on the first liberty bonds, and the government was paying out in the whole country $25,000,000. The first coupon day, however, in those who subscribed to the first issue bonds. There were, however, only a few coupons presented for payment at local banks.

There were several reasons for this. Most of those who bought 1-12's had converted them into 5's, interest on which is not due until next spring, while many others had either sold their bonds or failed to date to receive them, it was said.

SHELTON SAYS SOUTHWEST PROSPEROUS, BUT PRODIGAL

Several hundred teachers of the public and private schools of El Paso city and county attended a war saving stamp rally and luncheon at the high school cafeteria Saturday at noon. The teachers were addressed by Mr. Shelton, postmaster; Alfred P. Cole, C. P. Putnam and Zaeli L. Cook. "The war saving stamp campaign is an encouragement to the government, the teachers were told."

Mr. Shelton said the southwest has been prosperous, but prodigal, and that the people should now encourage the war saving stamp campaign.

GREAT INTEREST IN OIL PROSPECTS NEAR BOWIE

Bowie, Ariz., Dec. 15.—A real oil bonanza is being held at Bowie and the oil rig that is now drilling is expected to encounter the first stream at 319 feet any day, as the test hole developed oil at that depth.

The company now drilling is financed by Arizona and New Mexico business men of prominence. A number of California oil men have inspected the field and pronounced the surface indications excellent and in every way typical of the Bakken field territory. A number of California men have filed claims and expect to have a heavy rig at work in the near future.

The excitement and activity of the Bowie oil boom is attracting wide attention from all over this part of the state. Requests for locations are coming in from Tombstone, Wilcox, Globe, Douglas, Phoenix, California and the eastern states.

The successful development of a commercial oil field at Bowie would surpass the entire mining industry of the state and make Bowie the metropolis of the state in two years, according to editor J. H. Jaques of the Enterprise.

The United States government and the Arizona state university are of course all possible encouragement to oil development and the Bowie field is being surveyed and blue printed for public information.

Many of the French war hospitals are presided over by women chiefs.

JENKINS XMAS PIANO CLUB PUTS A PIANO WITHIN THE REACH OF EVERY PURSE

HERE IS OUR PLAN

READ CAREFULLY.

With the co-operation of the factories we are organizing a Piano Club, a Player Piano Club. Each club will be limited to 22 members and as far as the factories will co-operate with us. The advantage in price reduction gained by buying en masse lots in each instance, also the saving in freight, is given direct to the club member. In addition, a five per cent reduction bonus by ourselves, or in reality saved by ourselves in selling expense. With a saving of at least $75.00 to each club member (and in some instances it will be greater) joining our Piano or Player Club. This is in addition to the advantage to be had in the way of especially easy terms. Every club member also has the opportunity to earn a further discount of 25, which plan is explained at time of purchase. Membership positively limited to 22 members. Be one of the first to take advantage of this truly great saving.

RED CROSS SEALS MAY BE SHORT; SALE SUMS $2314

Because of the unprecedented sale of Red Cross Christmas seals this year, a shortage is predicted from headquarters in New York. Booths at the Sheldon and Paso del Norte hotels will be opened Monday. Mrs. J. A. Potter has announced that she needs about ten more workers, to help during the night of December 15, and any woman who is willing to help should telephone Mrs. Potter.

The seal sale totaled $2314 Saturday morning. Reports from the schools indicate that the sale will be going rapidly. Robert Walter, of the Morehead school, sold $1 worth Friday and took $16 more in seals Saturday. The house buyers found Mrs. Potter's undertaking house, 21 Southwestern Portland Cement company, in, and closed at 10 o'clock.

MEET ONLY ON CALL.

Announcement that the house service section of the Red Cross here would meet again until called, was made Saturday at noon by Mrs. E. P. Skinner, the chairman.
